this volume engages the interface between the development of human lives and social relational networks it focuses on the integration of two subfields of sociology social science the life course and social networks research practitioners studying social networks typically focus on social structure or social organization ignoring the complex lives of the people in those networks at the same time life course researchers tend to focus on individual lives without necessarily studying the contexts of social relationships in which lives are embedded and linked to one another through social networks these patterns are changing and this book creates an audience of researchers who will better integrate the two subfields it covers the role of social networks across the life span from childhood and adolescence to midlife through old age about half of all incoming ninth graders in urban districts will fail classes and drop out of school without a diploma failing at school starts with the premise that urban american high schools generate such widespread student failure not because of some fault of the students who attend them but because high schools were designed to stratify achievement and let only the top performers advance to higher levels of education this is particularly true for low income racial ethnic minority students to get different results farrington proposes fundamental changes based on what we now know about how students learn what motivates them to engage in learning and what kinds of educational systems and structures would best support their learning conducted over a 7yr period spawning many jrnal pub s this vol will summarize the many interconnected studies that were conducted will frame each one in terms of the larger lit will emphasize their contrib s to motivational theory educ practice the middle school years are a maze of academic duties human growth and self development discovering self identity and increasing social interaction with other people this maze can be an adventure of achievement and opportunity or it can be a struggle of difficulty and disappointment as these experiences are the impetus or foundation for many later achievements in academics careers and personal life it is imperative that educators maximize these formative years by helping middle school students successfully travel through this maze despite its ups and downs its twists and turns and its new challenges to master and the old issues to resolve for instance educators must support students who have fallen behind so as to thwart their reduced likelihood of turnaround in high school likewise educators must challenge exceptional students in order to perpetuate their enthusiasm for learning and prepare them for college studies by discussing the comprehensive roles and duties of school administrators counselors and teachers the power of middle school addresses how to maximize middle school curriculum and extra curricular activities for the academic personal and professional benefits of all students this is an intro level text that teaches how to think clearly and conceptually about quantitative information emphasizing ideas over technicality and assuming no prior exposure to data analysis statistics or quantitative methods the books four parts present the foundation for quantiative reasoning correlation and causation statistical relationships causal phenomena and incorporating quantitative information into decision making within these parts it covers the array of tools used by social scientists including regression inference experiments research design and more all by explaining the rationale and logic behind such tools rather than focusing only on the technical calculations used for each new concepts are presented simply with the help of copious examples and the books leans towards graphic rather than mathematical representation of data with any technical material included in appendices
