exposes the role eurocentric history writing plays in rationalizing european oppression of afrikan peoples and in the falsification of afrikan consciousness and contends that the alleged mental and behavioral maladaptiveness of oppressed afrikan peoples is a political economic necessity for the maintenance of white domination and imperialism back cover this book argues that a theory of crime specific to the african american experience is justified by qualitative and quantitative data not just because of the disproportionately higher percentage of african americans in the u s population who are offenders but also because of the vastly higher percentage of black americans who are non offenders historically african american communities were marked by a strong sense of community promoted by limited resources and racial segregation however with integration african american populations grew less concentrated in the same areas and this population of people began to rely less on each other in an effort to attain equality which still at times feels elusive and challenged the sense of community and impact of education once prevalent among african americans has suffered fostering collaborations between african american communities and educational institutions is a pivotal reference source that explores pre segregation experiences of community and education as well as the changes among hbcus and public education in predominately african american and poor areas the book sheds light on the relationship between racial and educational disparities and reveals the impact of community and cultural co dependence in moving african americans toward a more socially equitable place within american culture covering topics such as the achievement gap community relationships and teacher education this publication is ideally designed for educators higher education faculty hbcus researchers policymakers non profit organizers historians sociologists academicians and students the encyclopedia of african cultural heritage in north america provides an accessible ready reference on the retention and continuity of african culture within the united states our conceptual framework holds first that culture is a form of self knowledge and knowledge about self in the world as transmitted from one person to another second that african people continuously create their own cultural history as they move through time and space third that african descended people living outside of africa are also contributors to and participate in the creation of african cultural history entries focus on illuminating africanisms cultural retentions traceable to an african origin and cultural continuities ongoing practices and processes through which african culture continues to be created and formed thus the focus is more culturally specific and less concerned with the broader transatlantic demographic political and geographic issues that are the focus of similar recent reference works we also focus less on biographies of individuals and political and economic ties and more on processes and manifestations of african cultural heritage and continuity features a two volume a to z work available in a choice of print or electronic formats 350 signed entries each concluding with cross references and further readings 150 figures and photos front matter consisting of an introduction and a reader s guide organizing entries thematically to more easily guide users to related entries signed articles concluding with cross references david horowitz has single handedly exposed the intellectual corruption that exists within the classrooms of american colleges like all forms of corruption indoctrination flourishes when kept in the dark here horowitz turns on the bright lights to expose what has become profoundly wrong with our colleges and universities we are all in his debt ward connerly former regent university of california david horowitz and coauthor jacob laksin take us inside twelve major universities where radical agendas have been institutionalized and scholarly standards abandoned the schools they examine are not the easily avoided bottom of the barrel rather they are an all too representative sampling of american higher education today horowitz and laksin have conducted the first comprehensive in depth multiyear investigation of what is being taught in colleges and universities across the country public to private from large state schools to elite ivy league institutions they have systematically scrutinized course catalogs reading lists professors biographies scholarly records and the first person testimonies of students administrators and faculty citing more than 150 specific courses they reveal how academic standards have been violated and demonstrate beyond dispute that systematic indoctrination in radical politics is now an integral part of the liberal arts curriculum of america s colleges the extreme ideological cant that today s students are being fed includes promoting marxist approaches as keys to understanding human societies with no mention of the bloody legacy of these doctrines and total collapse in the real world of the societies they created instilling the idea that racism brutally enforced by a white male patriarchy to oppress people of color and other marginalized groups has been the organizing principle of american society throughout its history and into the present requiring students to believe that gender is not a biological characteristic but a socially created aspect of human behavior designed by men to oppress women persuading students that america and israel are imperialistic and racist states and that the latter has no more right to exist than the south african regime in the days of apartheid in page after shocking page horowitz and laksin demonstrate that america s colleges and universities are platforms for a virulent orthodoxy that threatens academic ideals and academic freedom in place of scholarship and the dispassionate pursuit of truth that have long been the hallmarks of higher learning the new militancy embraces activist zealotry and ideological fervor in disturbingly large segments of today s universities students are no longer taught how to think but are told what to think collected papers from the first scramble for africa conference held from 25 27 may 2011

this text offers a conceptual communication approach to defining the cultural self it focuses upon the concept of whiteness and its equation with being american and enlarges this to encompass how european americans and african americans can be racially marginalized
