it's election day at the elementary school and Curious George gets to join in the vote on the new school mascot. It's election day and Curious George is ready to cast his vote on election day at the elementary school. Curious George and his friend the man with the yellow hat are visiting just in time to see the kids voting for their new school mascot. George can't resist getting in on the fun. He learns about the candidates, collects campaign stickers, and casts a lot of ballots. But what will happen when his hijinks start to get in the way of the vote and who will win the big election?

The second popular book about Nikki and Deja, two third-grade girls who are best friends, is coming up and she's been talking about it for weeks. But just before the big day, Auntie Dee gets called away on a business trip and Deja must stay with an elderly neighbor who cooks turnips for dinner and doesn't even have a color TV. Worse, the machinations of spoiled Antonia, Deja's new nemesis, threaten to ruin Deja's birthday party plans. Like the first book, this story captures with subtlety and humor all the small betrayals and triumphs of young girls' relationships. Readers will get a wider view of the girls' diverse neighborhood and will recognize themselves and their classmates in the colorful, deftly drawn school scenes. A more serious theme is also introduced with a light touch in a subplot concerning Deja's absent father.

Read the book behind Lena Dunham's acclaimed new movie. This historical fiction classic, told in the form of a diary, has drawn in generations of readers and is a Newbery Honor book. Catherine feels trapped; her father is determined to marry her off to a rich man, any rich man, no matter how awful. But by wit, trickery, and luck, Catherine manages to send several would-be husbands packing. Then a shaggy bearded suitor from the north comes to call, by far the oldest, ugliest, most revolting suitor of them all. Unfortunately, he is also the richest. Can a sharp-tongued, high-spirited, clever young maiden with a mind of her own actually lose the battle against an ill-mannered piglike lord and an unimaginative greedy toad of a father? Deus not if Catherine has anything to say about it. Catherine, a spirited and inquisitive young woman, narrates in diary form the story of her fourteenth year, the year 1290, in an appreciation in the New York Times. Illustrator Vera Brosgol spoke for many fans of this beloved book: "I fell hard for Karen Cushman's Catherine. Called Birdy, the second I opened it, more than any other heroine I'd read. This one sounded like me. For Catherine, and for me, there is no easy solution to the cage life makes for you. Sometimes the power is in deciding to be yourself in whatever cage you're in."

Phoebe Sharp has long red braids, she wears old beat-up sneakers, and clothes from goodwill. She lives with her father and brother on a small farm in Maine, where she reads fairy tales to her goats and snaps pictures with her Instamatic camera. Phoebe doesn't have a single friend, never mind a boyfriend. That is, not until she meets Melita. Melita arrives at the Sharps' farm in a see-through t-shirt and strappy platform sandals that show off her drawn-on tattoo. With her caramel-colored skin, stylish clothes, and urban attitude, Melita seems as different from Phoebe as two teenage girls could be. Through the summer, the girls grow to know each other as their friendship develops. Confusing feelings also begin to emerge. Could their friendship be deepening into something more?

The best-selling Five Little Monkeys are getting into trouble yet again this time while back to school shopping in the latest board book addition to the enormously popular series. With more than 8 million books sold the day before school starts, Mama takes her five little monkeys shopping for new clothes. Stay right here, she says, and don't go wandering off. But one little monkey has to go to the bathroom, and two little monkeys get thirsty. Then three little monkey friends arrive, and four little monkeys decide to go help find the others. Will Mama ever get all of her monkeys ready for school like with the other books in the Five Little Monkeys series? Kids will love reciting the repetitive phrases counting the characters and predicting what will happen next.

Reading this book should be at the top of your to-do list. Life Admin will give you many hours of your life back every day. An unseen form of labor creeps into our lives, stealing precious moments of free time, placing a strain on our schedules and our relationships, and earning neither appreciation nor compensation in return. This labor is Life Admin, the kind of secretarial and managerial work necessary to run a life and a household. Elizabeth Emens was a working mother with two young children, swamped like so many of us, when she realized that this invisible labor was consuming her. Desperate to survive and to help others along the way, she conducted interviews and focus groups to gather favorite tips and tricks, admin confessions, and the secrets of admin-happy households. Life Admin tackles the problem of admin in all its forms, from everyday tasks like scheduling doctors' appointments and paying bills to life-cycle events like planning a wedding, a birth, a funeral. Emens explores how this labor is created, how it affects our lives, and how we might avoid, reduce, and redistribute admin whenever possible, as individuals and as a society. Life Admin is the book that will teach us all how to do less of it and to do it better.
