tigers at war is the remarkable story of the infantrymen of the princess of wales's royal regiment the tigers by nickname who since the end of the cold war and fall of the iron curtain have served on the front line in northern ireland the balkans iraq and afghanistan as well as the many small wars and brush fires across africa asia and europe the regiment's unstinting and courageous service around the globe reflects britain's political and military engagement on the world stage over the last quarter century and the tigers emerged from the second gulf war 2003-09 with the distinction of having won more gallantry decorations for valor than any other regiment in the british army tigers at war provides an impressive and compelling life and times portrait of the modern regiment in war and conflict this superbly researched book written by a serving officer and incorporating the vivid reminiscences of the soldiers in the thick of action is a tribute not only to an exceptional fighting regiment but also to the extraordinary acts of courage of its individual infantrymen a compelling and absorbing narrative the book serves to mark the 25th anniversary of the formation of the latest incarnation of this remarkable and quintessentially english infantry regiment which reaches back over 445 years of unbroken regimental soldiering in the service of the crown and spanning the reigns of queen elizabeth i to queen elizabeth ii the complex and long drawn war between the sri lankan government and the liberation tigers of tamil eelam ltte ended with the defeat of the tigers in 2009 this book provides a military history of the conflict in tracing its evolution from a battle between a ragtag guerrilla force and a mainly ceremonial army to one between an organized guerrilla force with semi conventional capability and a state military apparatus that had morphed into a large and potent force with modern armour aircraft and naval vessels using a wide range of sources this book offers an incisive analysis of the progress and conclusion of one of the longest and most destructive wars in modern south asia comprehensive and accessible the volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of modern south asia especially sri lanka military history politics defence and strategic studies as well as the general reader this collection of case studies is concerned with tombs that testify to transnational history special attention is given to tombs of westerners and russians still extant in greater china but also to those of some noted chinese who were involved in transnational history during the 20th century tombs have a special potential to cast familiar things in a new light they also provide the possibility to counter check received narratives which might have been tailored along certain vested interests and circulated with specific target groups in mind you ll meet the legendary clare chennault the combative visionary who created and commanded the famed flying tigers general joseph vinegar joe stillwell the brilliant but abrasive u s theater commander who battled his british counterpart almost as fiercely as he fought the japanese general frank merrill whose merrill s marauders became the most famous and successful infantry unit in cbi and the british maverick general orde wingate who created the famous chindits who operated behind enemy lines what emerges from these incisive portraits is a penetrating study of the impact of personalities on the execution and outcome of armed conflict book jacket for more than three decades the liberation tigers of tamil eelam ltte fought a gruesome war for independence against the majoritarian sinhalese government of sri lanka even as the government fought ltte on the battlefield it also pursued a legal war through the enactment of counterterrorism laws that permitted indefinite detention and the use of confessions as sole evidence this book applies theoretical insights from the work of philosophers such as carl schmitt giorgio agamben and michel foucault to the sri lankan context to examine the conflicting narratives relating to these laws produced by both sides in the conflict includes selections from the daily bulletins of the china information committee
