pre university paper from the year 2009 in the subject didactics for the subject english applied geography grade 13 punkte course leistungskurs englisch language english abstract in the past few years i recognized more and more students going on language courses abroad not only course in the u s but also courses within europe strongly increase in popularity there is a great variety of tender from language courses that take only a few weeks or months to so called high school years professional business courses and even work and travel programs at a first glance it is very difficult to decide what to choose but i would like to concentrate on language courses for students that last only a few weeks i wanted to know why this is so fashionable nowadays and i began to think about this topic more intensively i asked myself if this would not be a great thing for me to do too in the following pages i am going to examine such language courses in detail i will present the different types of courses you can choose and the selection of accommodation available there will also be an evaluation i lead through a survey at linguatime language school in sliema malta to find out why so many students go on language holidays and if there is any progress possible at all it has two parts a and b i distributed one at the beginning and one at the end of my stay in malta to see if the students expectations were fulfilled or not there can be seen positive and negative aspects that hopefully reveal the real image of such a trip after my evaluation i am going to compare two particular language schools in malta the aspects will be the variety of courses the accommodation types the prices and the teachers as a last point in my conclusion i am going to sum up the evaluation so you will be able to see for yourself if such language courses really keep their promises but at first i want to have a closer look on the history of the country i chose for my stay malta has always been an interesting country for me because so many different cultures left their remains on its grounds and although it is close to the african coast it is still a part of europe which makes the journey much easier another advantage of malta is the currency for they have obtained the euro in 2004 the thing i liked best of this island is that they have english as an official language there are not so many countries so far in the south where you can speak english with native speakers and enjoy the warm climate as well especially not in europe

seminar paper from the year 2014 in the subject politics topic peace and conflict security grade 1 3 university of bamberg language english abstract the united nations un in international relations is considered to be a supranational organization currently the un consist of 193 member states and it stresses out four main purposes which are maintaining peace and security developing friendly relations amongst states helping states to work together and being a centre for harmonizing the actions of nations of the UN. Additionally, the UN is seen as a collective security system which offers states to settle down any disputes and for solving social, economic, humanitarian, and ecological problems on an international level (Gareis, 2006, 85). According to this purpose, the UN has acted and authorized multilateral interventions in many states which were affected by conflicts. The Libyan conflict in 2011 as an example was one of the cases where the UN has responded to the actions and the multilateral intervention in Libya leaves questions: how does the UN shape the behavior of its member states and why does the UN act in general? The theory of social constructivism by Alexander Wendt can provide an explanation to these questions. The theory defines balances of power between states and explains the behavior of states. Furthermore, it claims that international relations are social and the international system is constituted by ideas (Jackson & Sorensen, 2006, 162). But the main question which shall be discussed in this term paper is: therefore, how can the theory of social constructivism explain the actions by the United Nations Security Council in Libya? First of all, core assumptions of social constructivism have to be discussed in order to explain further analysis of this term paper. After the illustration of the core assumptions of social constructivism, the powers and functions of the UN Security Council shall be described because the Security Council as one of the most important main body of the UN is the only executive body that acts regarding any threat of peace and security. Thereafter, the situation in Libya as the empirical example has to be mentioned. What exactly happened in Libya and what did the UN, especially the Security Council, do altogether with the core assumptions of social constructivism? The theoretical knowledge of the Security Council and the information of the Libyan conflict. The main question shall be answered at the end. The conclusion shall summarize the term paper's outcome of the analysis.
