accepted myth that it's a weakness she argues that in truth vulnerability is strength and when we shut ourselves off from vulnerability from revealing our true selves we distance ourselves from the experiences that bring purpose and meaning to our lives daring greatly is the culmination of 12 years of groundbreaking social research across every area of our lives including home relationships work and parenting it is an invitation to be courageous to show up and let ourselves be seen even when there are no guarantees this is vulnerability this is daring greatly summary of daring greatly how the courage to be vulnerable transforms the way we live love parent and lead a comprehensive summary part 1 wholeheartedness wholeheartedness means that a person feels worthy even though this person just like any other has flaws wholeheartedness is about being focused on positive traits and good qualities and not being focused on a person's shortcomings according to brown wholeheartedness is based on five ideals the first ideal is the notion that every human being needs love and a sense of belonging the second is that those who feel that they belong somewhere and that they are loved also believe that they are worthy the third is about the feeling of worthiness the author says that feeling of worthiness is built over time the fourth is that wholehearted people want to live courageous compassionate and connected lives and the fifth is that people who live wholeheartedly see their vulnerabilities as catalysts for achieving courage compassion and connection in their lives furthermore brown says that if a person does not allow for himself or herself to be vulnerable that person will definitely shut down from the positive things that life has for him or her being vulnerable means to start doing something even when you do not know for certain that you will prevail and when a person tries to protect itself from being vulnerable he/she does that as a measure of fear and disconnection to be continued here is a preview of what you will get a full book summary an analysis fun quizzes quiz answers etc get a copy of this summary and learn about the book please note this is a summary of the book and not the original book the gifts of imperfection by brene brown a 30 minute summary inside this instaread summary overview of the entire book introduction to the important people in the book summary and analysis of all the chapters in the book key takeaways of the book a reader's perspective preview of this summary chapter 1 it is necessary to practice courage compassion and connection on a daily basis in order to develop worthiness it is a mistake to try and win someone over because it means trading in the sense of self in search of approval from another by doing this people stop believing in their own worth the first step toward living wholeheartedly is for people to have the courage to reach out to others and to share their own stories of shame when in need of compassion people should reach out to the right person someone who supports them whether they are feeling strong or whether they are struggling when people are willing to reveal that they are imperfect and real their relationships are strengthened they make a connection this is why courage compassion and connection are the gifts of imperfection courage is displayed when people are willing to speak honestly and openly about who they are what they are feeling and their experiences both good and bad courage is about being vulnerable it takes courage for someone to ask for what he or she needs and to risk disappointment when one person has courage it can create a ripple effect making others around that person a little braver compassion is a relationship between two equals it occurs when people recognize they share humanity with others the heart of compassion is acceptance by people of themselves and of others in order for compassion to occur people need to set boundaries and hold others accountable for their behavior the key to compassion is being able to separate people from their behaviors it is necessary to address what people do not who they are connection exists as the energy between people who feel they have been seen heard and valued without judgment people feel strengthened by this relationship and need connection to do well emotionally physically spiritually and intellectually connections happen when people both give and receive with an open heart chapter 2 love and belonging are necessary in people's lives in order for people to experience love and belonging they must believe they are worthy people who accept themselves for who they are and who stop worrying about what others think are worthy of love and belonging at the heart of wholeheartedness is that people have to believe they are worthy now as they are not if or when they become or do something in the future
