in the 1850s newburyport massachusetts was a bustling area thanks in part to the shipyards along the merrimac river and the import of exotic goods from faraway ports many books have been written about the area but little is known about the workers in the city where they came from and how they helped newburyport to grow and change using data from the 1850 federal census for newburyport margaret p motes examines two subjects the place of birth of all residents born outside of massachusetts to demonstrate migration patterns and the occupations of all of its residents to demonstrate diversity of skills the 1850 federal census data for occupations lists over two thousand people in the work force but not surprisingly few opportunities for women margaret p motes stated that upon examining the 1850 newburyport city directory women were indeed listed with many varying occupations though they were not recorded by the census taker the largest number of immigrants came from ireland but many came from england and scotland as well bringing with them skills and occupations like weaver carpenter shoemaker and mariner families with long ties to local names in the community might find some of their ancestors here prepared as part of the celebration of the sesquicentennial of the city of newburyport there are over 4 800 individuals listed in this book between the ages of one month to ninety two years old abstracted information includes name age sex occupation color place of birth household and dwelling number and the area within newburyport names are listed alphabetically then by age persons who are not found alphabetically are listed in the surname index the appendix lists men who went to california which was found in the 1850 newburyport city directory there are three indices full name occupation and place of birth english speaking readers might be surprised to learn that alain badiou writes fiction and plays along with his philosophical works and that they are just as important to understanding his larger intellectual project in ahmed the philosopher badiou's most entertaining and accessible play translated into english here for the first time readers are introduced to badiou's philosophy through a theatrical tour de force that has met with much success in france ahmed the philosopher presents its comic hero the 'treacherous servant' ahmed as a seductively trenchant philosopher even as it casts philosophy itself as a comic performance the comedy unfolds as a series of lessons with each 'short play' or sketch illuminating a different badiouian concept yet ahmed does more than illustrate philosophical abstractions he embodies and vivifies the theatrical and performative aspects of philosophy mobilizing a comic energy that exposes the emptiness and pomp of the world through his example the audience is moved to a living engagement with philosophy discovering in it the power to break through the limits of everyday life
