introduction to Viktor E. Frankl the man and his message philosopher of meaning Viktor Emil Frankl was a philosopher of meaning even from his childhood days and into his adolescent years Frankl was concerned with meaning at the early age of four he vividly remembered the thought of his own mortality in his autobiography he recalled one evening just before falling asleep I was startled by the unexpected thought that one day I too would have to die what troubled me then as it has done throughout my life was not the fear of dying but the question of whether the transitory nature of life might destroy its meaning even as a teenager Frankl was on a quest for meaning searching for the answer to the question what is the meaning of life he wrote I will remember how I felt when I was exposed to reductionism in education as a junior high school student at the age of thirteen once our natural science teacher told us that life in the final analysis was nothing but a combustion process an oxidation process I sprang to my feet and said professor Fritz if this is the case what meaning does life have in 1921 as a high school student at the age of 16 he gave his first public lecture to an adult education school it was entitled the meaning of life for Frankl all of life was imbued with meaning no matter what situation in which one may find oneself no how well of ill chronically or terminally ill one was no matter where one was along life's journey no matter how badly a person may have wrecked his or her life in all of its various conditions life still has meaning as Frankl often said every life in every situation and to the last breath has a meaning retains a meaning he was emphatic the so called life not worth living does not exist frankl was an amazing man who had an amazing message to tell men and women in the 20th century he was an extremely gifted human being a physician psychiatrist and philosopher
