how can we cultivate both fresh understanding and fresh experience of the holy spirit no matter what our theological tradition this much needed master class on pneumatology from gordon smith encourages us to hold biblical convictions firmly but gracefully as the guiding principles of discernment and humility help us intentionally live spirit responsive lives day by day the scriptures teach the church that in biblical times the coming of the holy spirit equally entailed objective gift of divine reality and subjective experience of his presence gifts and works there was objective pouring out and imparting of the holy spirit from the divine side and subjective experiential demonstration from the receivers side which resulted from the gifts endowed and power imparted along with the holy spirit having given them either verbally uttered or visibly performed gifts the holy spirit then moved believers towards practical demonstration through subjective experience believers subjective experience took place only as a result of the objective gift of the holy spirit and the resulting endowment and empowerment thus in the objective content of his manifestation the holy spirit is the objective gift of god to indwell his people in the subjective content of his manifestation the holy spirit endows people with audibly uttered or visibly performed gifts the subjective experience of the holy spirit's presence therefore is an original theological input from god just like the objective impartation of the holy spirit practitioners were just objects of divine purpose and their subjective experience was divine provided and divine initiated genuine experience beyond their consciousness and calculation reception of the holy spirit therefore means equally an experience of his presence gifts power and works in the church and in with and through believers from hosanna to maranatha are you feeling weary overwhelmed by the scope of your leadership do you wonder where your work is taking you or what it's all for you're not alone every generation reaches a point of rude awakening where what is demanded of us is more than what is given us what we've been prepared for isn't what we're facing what we've been taught is the good life really isn't jerome daley points us to ancient wisdom that long ago exposed the limits of celebrity and achievement cults the monastic tradition it offers not only meaning and a critique of values antithetical to a good life but also ways of living and leading that will fill you up and dramatically increase your impact your leadership is meant for more gravitas will help you find the path

how you can experience the dynamic work of the holy spirit in your life

Dr Mark Stibbe fell in love with John's Gospel as a teenager. This set of devotional readings springs from profound reflection over many years, but the tone is inspirational and popular. He writes, 'John is my favourite Gospel. In John's Gospel, Jesus is the Son who reveals the Father. He is presented to us as the one who came to show us what the Father is truly like. He says of himself that he is the only way to the Father and the one who discloses the truth about the Father's heart of God. Every verse of John's Gospel reveals the Father. Together we consider 366 texts and look at how they reveal the Father who has adopted us, embraced us in his family, and promised never to abandon us. The purpose of every daily study is to turn what we learn into the language of adoration.'

Liturgical Elements for Reformed Worship is a series of four liturgical resources. Three consist of liturgical elements for years A, B, and C, and a fourth, the first such resource to support the implementation of Year D, a quadrennial supplement to the revised Common Lectionary. Each volume consists of a call to worship, opening prayer, call to confession, prayer of confession, and words of assurance with Year A/C including additional elements: a prayer in preparation for worship, the offering prayer of dedication, and a blessing suitable for Presbyterian, Reformed, and other Protestant worship. Each of these practical volumes is intended for use by pastors, liturgists, and other planners and leaders of worship.

A powerful supernatural journey, James Goll reveals God's clear pattern of revival. Enter into the fires of revival and be part of the next great awakening. Mike Bickle, revival breakthrough preparing for seasons of glory, awakening, and great harvest, takes you on a powerful supernatural journey that will lead to an unprecedented outpouring of God's Spirit. The times of deep darkness we are facing on earth today are a backdrop for a great saturation of God's light and an imminent display of his glory. We are headed into seasons, not just days, of unprecedented shaking and unprecedented revival running side by side. In this book, best-selling author James Goll highlights moves of the Holy Spirit in Scripture and church history that teach vital lessons for today: the significance of prayer, the prophetic, and God's presence for awakening; choice prophetic words from generals in the body of Christ about the coming great harvest; what it means to be possessed by God and a gatekeeper of his presence; the next move of the Spirit will produce the largest harvest of souls in the history of the church. We can partner with the Holy Spirit to create an opening for God's presence, revival, and harvest to manifest in this world. Then the Spirit and the bride will cry out in complete unity: Come, Lord Jesus! Let's believe big! Let's prepare for God's glory to be restored to his church and the world.
