wissenschaftstheoretischen charakter der ethik als normativer geisteswissenschaft bestimmt arne grøns reading of søren kierkegaard s authorship revolves around existential challenges of human identity the 35 essays that constitute this book are written over three decades and are characterized by combining careful attention to the augmentative detail of kierkegaard s text with a constant focus on issues in contemporary philosophy contrary to many approaches to kierkegaard s authorship grøns does not read kierkegaard in opposition to hegel the work of the danish thinker is read as a critical development of hegelian phenomenology with particular attention to existential aspects of human experience anxiety and despair are the primary existential phenomena that kierkegaard examines throughout his authorship and grøns uses these negative phenomena to argue for the basically ethical aim of kierkegaard s work in grøns reading kierkegaard conceives human selfhood not merely as relational but also a process of becoming the self that one is through the otherness of self experience that is the body the world other people and god this book should be of interest to philosophers theologians literary studies scholars and anyone with an interest not only in kierkegaard but also in human identity karl barth s commentary on paul s epistle to the romans in its two editions 1919 and 1922 is one of the most significant works published in christian theology in the 20th century this book which landed like a bombshell on the theologians playground still deserves close scrutiny one hundred years after its publication in this volume new testament scholars philosophers of religion and systematic theologians ponder the intricacies of barth s expressionistic commentary pointing out the ways in which barth interprets paul s epistle for his own day how this actualized interpretation of the apostle s message challenged the theology of barth s time and how some of the insights he articulated in 1919 and in 1922 have shaped christian theology up to our day with his commentary the young swiss pastor paved the way for a renewed intensely theological interpretation of the scriptures the volume thus centers on some of the key themes which run through barth s commentary faith as divine gift beyond any human experience or psychological data the easter event as the turning point of the world s history god s judgment and mercy and god s one word in jesus christ this volume represents a major contribution to the interpretation of karl barth s early thought the hypothesis that the gospel of mark was heavily influenced by pauline theology and or epistles was widespread in the nineteenth century but fell out of favour for much of the twentieth century in the last twenty years or so however this view has begun to attract renewed support especially in english language scholarship this major and important collection of essays by an international team of scholars seeks to move the discussion forward in a number of significant ways tracing the history of the hypothesis from the nineteenth century to the modern day searching for historical connections between these two early christians analysing and comparing the theology and christology of the pauline epistles and the gospel of mark and assessing their reception in later christian texts this major volume will be welcomed by those who are interested in the possible influence of the apostle to the gentiles on the earliest gospel the present publication is a continuation of two earlier series of chronicles philosophy in the mid century firenze 1958 59 and contemporary philosophy firenze 1968 edited by raymond klibansky as with the earlier series the present surveys purport to give a survey of significant trends in contemporary philosophical discussion the need for such surveys has i believe increased rather than decreased over the last years the philosophical scene appears for various reasons rather more complex than ever before the continuing process of specialization in most branches the emergence of new schools of thought particularly in philosophical logic in the philosophy of language and in social and political philosophy the increasing attention being paid to the history of philosophy in discussions of contemporary problems as well as the increasing interest in cross cultural philosophical discussion are the most important contributory factors surveys of the present kind are a valuable source of knowledge about this complexity and may as such be of assistance in renewing the understanding of one's own philosophical problems the surveys it is to be hoped may help to strengthen the socratic element of modern philosophy the world wide dialogue or kommunikationsgemeinschaft so far six volumes have been prepared for the new series the present surveys in asian philosophy vol 7 follow the surveys in the philosophy of language and philosophical logic vol 1 philosophy of science vol 2 philosophy of action vol 3 philosophy of mind vol 4 african philosophy vol 5 and medieval philosophy part 1 2 vol 6
