serving the lord is something that is best begun in his immediate presence when a person has served him in his immediate presence and satisfied his heart he may send such a one to go and serve on his behalf serving the lord in his immediate presence consists essentially in worshipping him of the leaders of the church in antioch it was said while they were worshipping the lord and fasting the holy spirit said set apart for me barnabas and saul for the work to which i have called them then after fasting and praying they laid their hands on them and sent them off acts 13 2 3 barnabas and saul were sent out to serve from the presence of the lord to the work to which god had called them they were ministering in his presence when he sent them away to minister on his behalf all service of the lord ought to begin that way serving the lord is invariably tied to resurrection life no one can truly serve the lord without that he the lord of all glory has taken the initiative to bring that one into his service this is so because those who serve him must know death with christ and resurrection with him service is the flow of the life of god and without resurrection life there can be no flow people can do many things in the lord s name but only that which flows from life will last and to have the flow of life there must first of all be death a person will minister in proportion to the extent to which he has died and risen with christ those who spare themselves the hard demands of the cross will find that they have also spared themselves the ministry of life the extent to which a person surrenders himself to death to the world and the flesh is the extent to which that one will know resurrection life and resurrection ministry there can be a work in might and power that is not fully of the holy spirit samson ministered in power although he was out of vital fellowship with the holy god god demands holiness from all who would serve him to his satisfaction finally we want to say that christian work is acceptable in his sight and satisfies his heart only to the extent to which it is in harmony with his will and under his direction every work that is outside his will and direction is not only useless it is an abomination to him too many believers today are doing nothing for the lord they are shy and withdrawn and lack boldness and a clear sense of direction where are those who would dare to step out at his command and take entire villages towns provinces nations and continents for him where are those who would seek great things for him my prayer is that the lord of the harvest should use these messages to raise servants and slaves unto his glorious son and that such will start in his presence and as he directs end in the uttermost parts of the world lord jesus ignore the weaknesses and shortcomings both of these messages and of the human messenger and use them lord for your glory amen gargantua and pantagruel is a satire ridiculing the educational and religious establishment of rabelais time this book my separation from the common unto god and unto world conquest is a summary of the book the joy of begging to belong to the lord jesus christ from the same author i have walked with the lord jesus for many years he has blessed and satisfied me beyond measure in response to his love i give him my spirit my soul and my body with joy and i have found it an undeserved privilege to serve him i beg to serve him i beg to give him my all i beg with joy for the undeserved privilege of knowing loving and serving him glory be to his great name this book elaborates the politico ideological viewpoints of aurobindo as displayed when he reigned as one of the major nationalist leaders defining indian nationalism bidyut chakrabarty examines aurobindo s politico ideological ideas during the period 1893 1910 when he was an active participant in the new nationalist or democratic nationalist campaign which started with the bifurcation of the indian national congress between the moderates and extremists also known as the revolutionary nationalists in its 1907 annual session held at surat chapters cover aurobindo s distinctive ideas of nationalism which he evolved in collaboration with his colleagues especially lal bal pal lala lajpat rai bal gangadhar tilak and bipin chandra pal and how he redefined the practice of nationalism the book also demonstrates that unlike his predecessors the moderates aurobindo set out many strategies including boycott and passive resistance to execute the distinctive plan he designed to attain his politico ideological goal other topics include the relatively less discussed aspect of aurobindo s socio political ideas namely his unique model of education as an antidote to many of the crippling socio cultural prejudices and the importance of bhagavad gita in shaping aurobindo s politico ideological priorities discusses how a person s view of the world influences how a person lives and argues that christians are called not only to personal faith but to a biblical worldview this book the processes of faith which deals with a very important aspect of the christian life is written by professor zacharias tanee fomum in this book the author defines faith as the proclamation of that which has already taken place in the invisible it is the place where a truth will stick as active sites are to a chemist so is faith to a believer faith is created by obedience to god prayer and fasting for faith to be born and grow there is need for hearts that are totally consecrated to god the author mentions the fact that he who has received an active word from god holds on to god no matter what he sees around that is faith the need to spend long hours before god especially in reading and re reading god s word for faith to grow cannot be overemphasized in fact people ought to spend a lot of time with the word of god so that it creates faith in them nevertheless the author warns against the dangers of sin which destroys faith he invites you to cooperate with god so that your faith in him will be born and grow we recommend this book to you dear reader praying that the lord will use it to enable you to grow in your faith in him
