schooling for everyone agenda for education in a democracy the context of schooling in a democracy an essential narrative for schooling democracy education and the human conversation renewal leadership for educational renewal experiencing the agenda

the life of a democracy is dependent in a major sense upon the education of its people the public schools of america have been entrusted with the development of a program of education to safeguard and improve our democracy boys and girls living in america growing up in the american home the american school and the environment of an american community accept rather naturally even though imperfectly the responsibility of citizenship the foreign born have not had the opportunity to grow up under similar environmental conditions it follows therefore that instruction in citizenship is highly desirable and essential for many who come to our country and who want to become an integral part of its society this pamphlet civic education for the foreign born was prepared at the request of the president of the american association of school administrators in order to bring before the members of that association and others the important educational job yet to be done that job is primarily the responsibility of public education naturalization is a vital function the nationality laws place upon the immigration and naturalization service responsibilities that make it highly desirable for its officials to work very closely with the public school leaders in the educational work this pamphlet is one evidence of this cooperative relationship phillip moore s book the future of children describes the work of an innovative independent school in michigan and the principles of a love based education this book grew out of over four decades of direct experience with children who have been educated in a school that was based on love these children have grown up to be very different kinds of people their direct connection to the natural world has influenced them to feel a deep connection with life their sensory rich education has given them a life long love for creativity for doing and making things of beauty and function their abilities to collaborate with others has given them the direct experience of accomplishing projects that live beyond the possibility of an individual their ability to do their own thinking and to be in love with life long learning has given them the confidence to live in a world of shifting complexity and deep uncertainty the lessons and the stories of this school provide us with insights and the creative inspiration that will fuel new ways of teaching and new ways of learning this book is essential for parents and educators who are dedicated to shifting from the dominant industrial failing educational paradigm to a new paradigm that is based on love trust and deep inter connection many educators have been looking for a fundamentally different approach to engage young people and encourage progress in learning supported by recent public policy developments a transformation is beginning to take place in the practice of many schools the focus of learning is shifting away from the child as an individual in a classroom detached from the surrounding neighbourhood to a learning community that embraces carers and families as well as young people and teachers this monograph analyses the organising principles of this cultural transformation and considers how it will shape learning in schools and communities throughout the world the book brings together key thinkers from the fields of new learning new communities of educational practice and new forms of educational governance arguing for the necessary interconnectedness of pedagogy institutions and governance this ground breaking book will undoubtedly shape the policy agenda in this area for years to come participants in the conference adopted a world declaration on education for all that reaffirmed the concept of education as a fundamental human right and urged the nations of the world to intensify their efforts to meet the basic learning needs of all children youth and adults 11 education for all in the united states the status of education for all in the united states in challenging the nations of the world to pursue the goal of universal basic education the framework for action to meet basic learning needs specified six target dimensions to be used as a basis for setting intermediate and long term goals and for measuring progress toward the goal of efa rate of 87 percent is the same as that of sweden switzerland and the united kingdom and lower than that of the czech republic korea and norway 18 dropping out at the secondary level although the united states has achieved universal access at the elementary level a substantial minority of students about one in 20 drop out of school at the middle and high school levels during the 1990s scores of 17 year olds rose from 305 to 307 those of 13 year olds from 270 to 274 and those of 9 year olds from 230 to 231 30 reading scores increased in the 1970s and 1980s but the increases were not sustained in the 1990s when the scores of 17 year olds actually fell from 290 in 1990 to 287 in 1996 while those of 9 and 13 year olds both rose by a percentage point by the year 2000 the nation s teaching force will have access to programs for the continued improvement of their professional skills and the opportunity to acquire the knowledge and skills needed to instruct and prepare all american students for the next century education has become one of our major concerns at the heart of any strategy for prosperity and social cohesion but young people are having more difficulty than ever before in adapting to the world they will enter as adults tom bentley argues that if education is to meet the emerging challenges of the twenty first century we must recognise that learning takes place far beyond the formal education sector we cannot rely solely on dedicated teachers to deliver the understanding and personal qualities young people will need instead we must connect what happens in schools to wider opportunities for learning drawing on a wide ranging review of educational innovation and on contemporary analysis of economic social and technological change this book shows that creating an education revolution requires us to think far more radically about young people and the options for reform and outlines a vision of education fit for the twenty first century tom bentley is a senior researcher at demos the independent think tank he was born and educated in east london and at oxford university his research areas include young people education the future of work and combating of social exclusion
