both an exploration of character and a reflection on the meaning of history memoirs of hadrian has received international acclaim since its first publication in france in 1951 in it marguerite yourcenar reimagines the emperor hadrian s arduous boyhood his triumphs and reversals and finally as emperor his gradual reordering of a war torn world writing with the imaginative insight of a great writer of the twentieth century while crafting a prose style as elegant and precise as those of the latin stylists of hadrian s own era legendary figures examines revolutionary views of the past that have played a crucial role in european and american literature of the last 150 years clayton koelb traces these new approaches to history through an impressive range of novels from flaubert's salammbo to christa wolf's cassandra koelb argues that this new historical sense which arose in the mid nineteenth century gained eloquent expression in flaubert's writings what is crucial about the new historical sense is that it views the past as essentially alien and other the connection between past and present may be powerful but it is always indirect and difficult to negotiate as a result the past seems exotic and unattainable the object of nostalgia and desire koelb distinguishes this sense of history with its persistent discontinuities between past and present from the more continuous and progressive views of history of novelists like sir walter scott and such philosophers as hegel marx and lukács in their writings history proceeds according to the laws of cause and effect and each epoch can be understood as both the result of the previous one and the cause of the next in contrast the modernist writers that koelb examines flaubert pater mann broch wilder yourcenar and wolf imagine a past that is mythic and legendary and thus a metaphor for everything distant complicated unattainable and unknowable transgressant les lois de la biographie historique en plaçant dans la bouche même d un empereur romain le récit qu il fait de sa vie marguerite yourcenar inaugure avec mémoires d hadrien un genre littéraire original celui de l autobiographie fictive de ce fait dans ce beau roman inscrit au programme des agrégations de lettres classiques et modernes la question de l écriture de soi s avère singulièrement diffractée a la différence de l autobiographie traditionnelle qui postule une identité entre auteur narrateur et personnage le soi peut renvoyer ici à l empereur qui se raconte tout comme à l écrivain qui interroge à travers son personnage sa propre identité l auteur de cet ouvrage propose donc une étude de cette mise en scène subtile de l écriture de soi dans une œuvre qui se situe délibérément à la frontière du réel et de la fiction et dont la modernité consiste précisément à faire voler en éclats les distinctions convenues entre roman biographie et autobiographie
