in indonesia the events of 1st october 1965 were followed by a campaign to annihilate the communist party and its alleged sympathisers it resulted in the murder of an estimate of one million people a genocide that counts as one of the largest mass murders after wwii and the incarceration of another million many of them for a decade or more without any legal process this drive was justified and enabled by a propaganda campaign in which communists were painted as atheist hypersexual amoral and intent to destroy the nation to date the effects of this campaign are still felt and the victims are denied the right of association and freedom of speech this book presents the history of the genocide and propaganda campaign and the process towards the international people s tribunal on 1965 crimes against humanity in indonesia ipt 1965 which was held in november 2015 in the hague the netherlands the authors an indonesian human rights lawyer and a dutch academic examine this unique event which for the first time brings these crimes before an international court and its verdict they single out the campaign of hate propaganda as it provided the incitement to kill so many indonesians and why this propaganda campaign is effective to this day the first book on this topic it fills a significant gap in asian studies and genocide studies as indonesia emerges from authoritarian rule public intellectualshave begun to question the way the countrys past has been remembered memorialized and inscribed mary zurbuchens edited collection of essays addresses the many ways in which indonesians have dealt with memory its formation and its manipulation born with motor impairment sarwono kusumaatmadja grew up with low self esteem yet within this awkward shy boy lay a steely resolve to overcome his weaknesses it was this same resolve that propelled him to study at high school in the united kingdom thousands of miles from his native land navigating life on his own in the uk forged sarwono into an independent and resilient individual one who never flinched in the face of challenges but also one who never wanted to play the hero either his unique character and integrity acted like a magnet for opportunities back home in indonesia he was chosen to be chairman of the university student council of the bandung institute of technology even though he did not campaign for it and when he made it into the national parliament it was at the behest of the military he then became secretary general of Golkar the country's ruling party without having to pull any strings in taking on all the opportunities that came his way sarwono remained true to himself which later meant saying no to president soeharto when the latter tried to recruit him to be part of his inner circle alverdian explores how a distinct national character of maritime governance has influenced the nature of indonesia's aspiration to go beyond archipelagic towards a maritime nation through focusing on the intersection between the nation's political culture historical changes and geopolitical contexts which gave rise to the primacy of the theme of unity in the nation's discourse the main theme of this research is the three pillar framework of the tanah air concept which includes the political culture of persatuan nasional national unity the strategic culture of cakra manggilingan turning of the times from dark to golden periods and the geopolitical context of posisi silang dunia world crossroad position the findings of this publication indicate the dominant influence of javanese political culture philosophy values and traditions on the distinct character of indonesia s maritime orientation specifically javanese political philosophy and traditions within each pillar of tanah air have influenced continuity rather than change in the evolution of indonesia s maritime policy this book helps readers understand how the defining theme of unity in national political culture has shaped the evolution of indonesia s maritime policy from 1945 to 2019 it illustrates how the continuous influence of the theme of national unity as devised by the political elites through history has addressed the realities of the archipelago s geography and it is significant from both an academic and practical policy perspective a book designed for academics and the general public interested in gaining greater insight and knowledge on indonesia s maritime policy and maritime nation aspirations during much of general soeharto s 32 year reign as president 1967 98 indonesia was seen as a successful test case in third world development a wayward pariah turned into a shining example of modern economic planning and democracy soeharto s new order government won awards from the united states for the country s advances in family planning and the nation s massive development plans earned plaudits from the world bank and international financiers in reality behind the new order s benign facade lay an intricate web of nepotism and corruption along with a persistent wide ranging repression of civil liberties the full scope of which is now just beginning to become apparent indonesia in the soeharto years delves into many of the issues and incidents that shaped the nation from grim years of 1965 and 1966 up until the nation s first direct election of a president in 2004
