wholeness can come from broken pieces is about moving from living a life of hurt and pain to living a life full of freedom and peace. Saquota takes her readers on a journey that explains the importance of sorting through one's life piece by piece until they reach their goal. Wholeness. She uses personal experiences to help readers unpack their emotions while helping them move to a place where they can be authentically themselves. She forces her readers to revisit their past while working towards their future. This book will challenge you in every way possible to create change within yourself using various personal exercises designed to push you forward in your personal journey to divine healing.

Garvin compares circumstances in her life with those of Apostle Paul's journey on a ship in Acts Chapter 27. Her goal is to help readers understand that life does not have to be perfect for them to be successful. She helps readers see that they can take stumbling blocks and use them as pieces to move them to higher levels in their journey.

Surviving from broken pieces is a highly anticipated book that not only gives insight to overcoming but it gives you strategy and biblical wisdom to survive. Surviving from broken pieces is written to inspire women, letting them know no matter the turbulence you may have had to face during the relationship, you will make it with Christ Jesus. In relationships, you may not always know why they had to occur or why you had to go through numerous experiences. Some of the battle was to build your character as you endured the unforeseen circumstances. You may bend but never break or lose yourself. Grow through it, keep Christ first, and always know that in due season, God will reveal Himself in due time.
