winner of the best book awards and 1st place winner of the selah awards for christian life prepare your heart and home to serve not only family and friends but neighbors and strangers too make any space a haven of discipleship connection and comfort as christians we sometimes forget the power of an open door to a lost world using our homes to live out our faith in the true model of the great commission is challenging in our busy over scheduled lives but having a home that is always open and available is key to living in community with others and being missional in our thinking in this beautiful and inspiring book wife mom and interior design enthusiast victoria duerstock offers simple and inspiring ways to prepare our hearts and homes to be open to friends neighbors and strangers you don t need an immaculate or professionally decorated home to be hospitable in fact there is beauty in being honest with others about our lived in spaces and great value in being humble enough to live life together in the midst of imperfection but it ll be a blessing to you and to your guests to create a space that reflects the beauty peace and joy of life in christ

whether you have a tiny apartment or a big old farmhouse you can learn how to declutter common areas bring hygge to your guest room or even just to your couch if that's all you've got create a peaceful welcoming atmosphere schedule in regular housecleaning prepare freezer meals for no stress last minute dinners more importantly be encouraged to have your heart in the right place to engage in meaningful discussion with guests and to take time to be a Mary in our works driven Martha culture allow the Holy Spirit to overflow from your heart into your homes and community as you let your guard down and invite people into your lives the Christian life is a victorious life and anything less is a cheap imitation of the real thing Ron Dunn says don't be resigned to mediocrity open this book and respond to Ron's fresh and friendly invitation to a full and exciting Christian life out of the generation that grew up in the Great Depression and World War II thousands of young Christians felt called by God to the ends of the earth Pauline A. Brown with her husband Ralph and two other families went to the Sindh province in southern Pakistan in 1954 their goal to share God's message love with Muslim Sindhis this book is not just about North Americans abroad but about a fellowship of ordinary people crossing cultural and linguistic barriers to take on the extraordinary challenge of establishing the church in the Sindh desert Jars of Clay is a story of laughter and tears of danger and deliverance of despair and hope of victory and defeat above all it is a story of perseverance in the face of great odds the story of how the church of Jesus Christ small and fragile as it is is taking root in the barren desert soil of Sindh in Pakistan an Islamic republic is relevant more than ever in our post 9/11 world ordinary theology characterizes the reflective God talk of the great majority of churchgoers and others who remain largely untouched by the assumptions concepts and arguments that academic theology takes for granted Jeff Astley coined the phrase in his innovative study ordinary theology looking listening and learning in theology arguing that speaking statistically ordinary theology is the theology of God's church a number of scholars have responded to this and related conceptualizations exploring their theological implications other researchers have adopted the perspective in examining a range of church practices and contexts of Christian discipleship using the tools of empirical study ordinary theology research has proved to be key in uncovering people's everyday lay theology or ordinary dogmatics exploring ordinary theology presents fresh contributions from a wide range of authors who address the theological empirical and practical dimensions of this central feature of ordinary Christian existence and the life of the church two verses about Moses in the Bible have been the subject of debate since the first century in Exodus 33:20 God tells Moses that no one can see God and live but Numbers 12:8 says that Moses sees the form of the Lord how does one reconcile these two opposing statements did Moses see God and who gets to decide the Christian Moses investigates how ancient Christians from the New Testament to Augustine of Hippo resolved questions of who can see God how one can see God and what precisely one sees Jaeda Calaway explains that the decision about whether and how Moses saw God was not a neutral exercise for an early Christian rather it established the interpreter's authority to determine what was possible in divine human relations and set the parameters for the nature of humanity as a result Calaway argues interpretations of Moses' visions became a means for Jews and Christians to jockey for power allowing them to justify particular social arrangements relations and identities to assert the limits of humans in the face of divinity and to create an other seeing early christians with new eyes the christian moses reassesses how debates on moses visions from the first through the fifth centuries were in reality debates on the boundaries of humanity
