he first fruit of the collaboration of Borges and his long time friend Bioy Casares Six Problems for Don Isidro Parodi appeared originally under the pseudonym of H. Bustos Domecq. Bugsy's prose style is not quite the style of either of the collaborators but in this volume at least he never got out of hand as Borges complained he did later in the first story Parodi who is himself in jail for homicide is visited by a young man who seeks his help in solving a particularly baffling murder in the second story a killing takes place aboard an express train one of the characters is a writer named Gervasio Montenegro whom the discerning reader will identify as author of the book's expressive foreword in Tadeo Limardo's victim a murdered man prepares for his own death Tai-an's long search is a variation on Poe's The Purloined Letter in free
