seminar paper from the year 2010 in the subject english language and literature studies literature grade 1 7 university of heidelberg anglistik course proseminar 1 london language english abstract this paper tries to provide an insight into the analysis of 18th century author william blake's poem london comments from blake experts like the following from edward thompson make this task appear easy he said london is among the most lucid and instantly available of the songs of experience on the one hand i agree to this statement the poem itself is easy to understand not much background information about the author's life his visions and his complete works is required to grasp the message however an analysis has to provide more than just make the message of a poem understandable it should inter alia deal with the circumstances the author lived in the work of which the poem is part of and last but not least the stylistic devices and linguistic images used in this piece of art in the case of london this has been done by professionals many times a fact leading us to another important point that makes the task appear easier than it actually is the mass of biographies comments analyses and criticisms that have been written about blake and his works the advantage is obvious every line of london has been discussed and commented on and all that must be done is find adequate information at the same time this amount of literature presents many different approaches to analyse the poem too many to introduce them in a seminar paper hence this assignment tries to show a few aspects only after introducing the author and the songs of innocence and of experience briefly it follows a short summary of the poem and an overview of the stylistic devices the sixth chapter is the analysis itself focusing on the social criticism of the poem and dealing with the very complex relations between reading and hearing and seeing this study is informed by a knowledge of blake seen against the background of the long 18th century throughout the reader is reminded that the blake of songs of innocence and experience shared a century with fielding hogarth and sterne the classification of blake as a romantic too often overlooks the form and content of satirical modes with which he was familiar the study places blake's songs of innocence in their historical context and sites the poet within an historical work that bridges traditional canonical categories of high culture versus popular culture the author's aim was to return innocence to its original literary historical context songs of innocence and other early writings are included in the text the nature of william blake's genius and of his art is most completely expressed in his illuminated books in order to give full and free expression to his vision blake invented a method of printing that enabled him to create works in which words and images combine to form pages uniquely rich in content and beautiful in form it is only through the pages as originally conceived and published by the poet himself that blake's meaning can be fully experienced publisher's description
