karla homolka has proven to be a figure of enduring interest to the public and media for the last 20 years however despite the widespread canadian and international public commentary and media frenzy that has encircled this case homolka herself remains an enigma to most who write about her in contrast to much of the contemporary discussion on this case this book offers a comprehensive and detailed examination of the legal public and media understandings and explanations of homolka s criminality drawing from multiple fields of study and varied bodies of critical literature the book uses homolka as an object lesson to interrogate some of the narratives and conceptualizations of violent women the problematic normative constructions of womanhood and acceptable femininity leniency in sentencing taboo and disgust and questions of remorse the authors address broad questions about how women convicted of violence are typically constructed across four sites the courts the academy the mainstream media and public discourse this unique text is extremely important for feminist criminology and socio legal studies offering the first comprehensive academic effort to engage in dialogue about this important and fascinating case one of canada s finest crime reporters tells the whole story of the infamous bernardo homolka case now updated with a new chapter the sensational trials of paul bernardo and karla homolka for abduction rape manslaughter and murder caused widespread controversy that continues to this day the public was particularly outraged by the so called sweetheart deal the twelve year sentence homolka received as part of an agreement with government lawyers journalist nick pron gives us a comprehensive account of previously banned information about bernardo and homolka about homolka s role in the death of her sister tammy of slip shod police work and lack of communication that allowed bernardo and homolka the opportunity to murder schoolgirls kristen french and leslie mahaffy of the host of disturbing facts that were ruled inadmissible at the trial a new chapter details the most recent shocking facts of homolka s life in prison including her alleged special treatment such as private access to the prison s beauty salon and gym and rumoured liaisons in kingston s prison for women also detailed are her startling plans for the future as karla homolka s release date nears many will reflect on her place in history and on the canadian legal system perfect for fans of making a murderer and the people v o j simpson invisible darkness is the story of one of the more bizarre cases in recent memory killings so sensational that they prompted the canadian government in the interests of justice to silence its national press and to lock foreign journalists out of the courts to all appearances paul and karla bernardo had a fairytale marriage beautiful working class girl weds bright upper middle class guy and they buy a fashionable dream house in the suburbs but bored with his straight prestigious accounting job paul soon went freelance as an international smuggler he also revealed his boredom with conventional sex enough so that one christmas eve he persuaded his wife to drug her own sister and engage in a menage a trois during which the sister died a bungling coroner ruled her death accidental the couple then upped the ante kidnapping and imprisoning several high school girls for sexual marathons which they videotaped before savagely murdering their captives when the girls bodies were found the police were stymied although paul had been accused of rape and given a dna test that vanished for two years and only recently was linked to some fifty sexual assault cases until karla tried to have her husband arrested for wife beating during questioning she confessed to the crimes and is now serving two concurrent twelve year sentences for manslaughter in exchange for testifying against her husband who was jailed for life abduction rape murder multiple assaults three dead teenage girls a pair of criminals but which one was the killer this graphic account of convicted killers paul bernardo and karla homolka shows that in some relationships neither party is the better half both halves of this canadian couple add up to one evil story a story too shocking to believe but the truth especially true crime is all too often stranger and more gruesomely horrific than any mere work of fiction weaving a tale of innocent victims who were terrorized sexually assaulted and murdered this true crime thriller details the crimes and takes an in depth look at the perpetrators criminal profilers have found when killers work in tandem often they are designated as the leader and the follower readers are invited to draw their own conclusions as to which one of the deadly duo was the manipulator and who was being manipulated dubbed the ken and barbie killers by the media paul and karla s pink dream house became a place of nightmares get a copy today and discover the shocking confession that causes their world to fall apart like a house of cards and reveals that this perfect couple is in fact perfectly evil karla and paul seemed like the picture perfect newlyweds but were really a pair of vicious killers who abducted sexually tortured and murdered innocent schoolgirls videotaping their evil acts in suburban niagara falls billed as the crime of the century in canada this case has received a great deal of media coverage on both sides of the border includes eight pages of photos the examination of women and violence has traditionally focused on women who are killed or who are the victims of violence women murderers were often portrayed as vengeful wronged women or as maternal protectors recently however there have been significant shifts in the characterization of women who kill in both popular culture lara croft buffy and kill bill and in the current global political landscape the so called angels of death in palestine the essays in this book explore gender and violence by focusing on visual culture films museums art archives and the news media and by engaging with contemporary theories and practices of identity politics and the debates about the ethics and politics of representation itself does representation create or recreate the conditions of violence is representation itself a form of violence weaving between fact and fiction the contributors examine the powerful role culture plays in the production and reproduction of social meaning the collection offers fresh analyses of well established sources for the study of women and violence including the horror film and the court trials of women who have killed their abusive husbands it adds significant new dimensions to the characterization of gender and violence with the inclusion of nationalism and war feminist media and the exploration of violence circulated through non obvious sources such as medical cultural practice and the information society p 4 of cover warning this book contains graphic descriptions of violence karla homolka and paul bernardo might look like the ideal couple but they were a nation s most despicable killers karla began their depraved sex and murder spree by stealing drugs to knock out her little sister while paul raped and sodomized the unconscious girl karla dutifully caught it all on videotape unbelievably the worst was yet to come in a brazen daylight kidnapping karla lured schoolgirl kristen french to their car and helped paul force the struggling screaming teenager inside then just as she had with fourteen year old leslie mahaffy karla videotaped paul s repeated beatings and rape of his sex slave violated the terrified girl herself then simply watched as paul choked the life out of his victim the entire nation was horrified by these crimes in what became the costliest and by far most controversial manhunt and most sensational trial in canada s history now the full shocking story considered too grisly for newspaper and television coverage at the time can finally be told includes eight pages of photos motherhood is one of those roles that assumes an almost outsized cultural importance in the significance we force it to bear it becomes both the source of and the repository for all kinds of cultural fears its ubiquity perhaps makes it this perfect foil after all while not everyone will become a mother everyone has a mother when we force motherhood to bear the terrors of what it means to be human we inflict trauma upon those who mother a long tradition of bad mothers thus shapes contemporary mothering practices and the way we view them including the murderous medea of greek mythology the power hungry queen gertrude of hamlet and the emasculating mother of freud s theories certainly there are mother who cause harm inflict abuse act monstrously mothers are human but mothers are also a favourite and easy scapegoat the contributors to this collection explore a multitude of interdisciplinary representations of mothers that through their very depictions of bad mothering challenge the tropes of monstrous mothering that we lean on revealing in the process why we turn to them chapters in monstrous mothers troubling tropes explore literary cinematic and real life monstrous mothers seeking to uncover social sources and results of these monstrosities delving into reflective and auto ethnographic perspectives which explore subjective responses to the influence of the representation and treatment of evil women divergent women is ultimately a celebratory reclamation of the concept of feminine transgression people want me in max so my life will be hard but it really isn't there are absolutely no responsibilities here everything is provided we can spend the day sleeping sun tanning or doing whatever we want all day every day karla homolka in a letter to author stephen williams well they say never say never and they're right karla wrote in her startling first letter to stephen williams never in a million years did i think i would ever write a letter to someone from the media let alone you who has condemned me so harshly thus began one of the most controversial correspondences in canadian history karla picks up where williams's first book on the case Invisible Darkness left her painting her nails in her cell in solitary confinement in the gothic tower of kingston's prison for women after testifying against her ex husband in 1995 karla's life in prison was soon going to take a very different dramatic turn with a thriller's pace karla a pact with the devil charts the inner life of the world's most notorious female prisoner in karla williams lets karla and the other key players speak for themselves and what they have to say will surprise horrify and enlighten they were two beautiful wholesome looking young kids paul working for a major accounting firm and karla assisting at an animal health center they were deeply in love they were getting married in an exotic setting they had so much in common and indeed they did they both liked nothing better than to kidnap their victims assault them and then murder them who knew that even on their wedding day they had just killed another young girl and disposed of her body certainly not the police who had been hiding the fact that a whole series of rapes had been taking place in the neighborhood in order not to alarm the local community when they eventually came clean about what had been happening they published an artist's impression of the scarborough rapist that looked exactly like paul they were even told repeatedly that it looked exactly like paul but it would take them years and several subsequent deaths before they took these allegations seriously in contrast the authorities were very quick to prosecute the author of this book and of its sequel karla charging stephen williams with 114 trumped up offenses for having the temerity to point out how grossly incompetent they had been in a nine year persecution that led to his receiving a us human rights award normally only bestowed on writers working under dictatorships and yet all this happened in canada
