legal and insurance strategies for reducing the risks of running a home based child care business this book provides an easy to understand survey of family law across canada for those interested in ontario or other provinces perhaps working toward paralegal certification this book provides all the relevant details of family law and competencies in an organized fashion using plain language the latest amendments to the divorce act concerning decision making responsibilities parenting time and contact orders are fully canvassed as are new requirements for moving or relocating and the broader definition of family violence indeed not all marriages and families are harmonious there is a thorough review of domestic abuse and resulting trauma as well as legal remedies including peace bonds restraining orders and civil contempt this book also examines the client centered trauma informed anti racist approach to providing legal services the laws of marriage but not solemnization annulment and divorce are essentially the same no matter where you live in canada the first six chapters are very informative about those topics and issues of parenting child support and financial assistance for spouses this book also deals with disputes concerning parenting responsibilities support and property division that arise when the parties never married but cohabited in a conjugal relationship of some duration prior to separation while this book is not legal advice it provides every reader with a solid grasp of their rights and obligations in family matters and those who will qualify as legal advisers in family disputes will benefit from the breadth of the material and the comparative approach this casebook emphasizes doctrine policy and practice it presents three central themes the interrelated rights and obligations of children parents and government ways the legal system assesses and uses children's competence to shape regulation and the role of the child's lawyer volume covers several relevant international law issues including the un convention on the rights of the child international child labor and u s tobacco exports to children overseas the authors have devoted entire chapters to the representation of children the meaning of parent abuse and neglect the foster care system adoption medical decision making support and other financial responsibilities protective legislation and delinquency in this book aoife daly argues that where courts decide children's best interests for example about parental contact the un convention on the rights of the child's right to be heard is insufficient and autonomy should instead be the focus global law and practice indicate that children are regularly denied due process rights in their own best interest proceedings and find their wishes easily overridden it is argued that a children's autonomy principle respecting children's wishes unless significant harm would likely result would ensure greater support for children in proceedings and greater obligations on adults to engage in transparent decision making this book is a call for a reconceptualisation of the status of children in a key area of children's rights there is no area of legal practice with higher stakes than the representation of abused or neglected children if you handle these cases you know how delicate they can be how important it is to get the right result in representing children in child protective proceedings jean koh peters provides the expert analysis practical guidance you need to ensure that your child clients receive the best representation possible
